Create memorable experiences!

Enjoy a wine tasting on the Bordeaux Wine Trip; walk around the fortresses and UNESCO sites of Blaye, Bordeaux and Saint-Émilion; take a bike ride on the Véloodyssée® and Canal des 2 Mers® cycling routes; climb the dune of Pilat; sail down the Estuary, the Garonne and the Dordogne; surf the waves of the Atlantic; take in nature at the heart of Landes de Gascogne Natural Regional Park; meditate on the Route of Santiago de Compostela; feast on local products: Oysters from Arcachon Bay, Blayais asparagus, lamb from Pauillac, beef from Bazas...

Bordeaux Wine Trip

Bordeaux is the oldest fine wine-growing region in the world, where a full range of wines are made: reds, dry whites, sweet whites, dessert wines, rosés, Bordeaux claret, Crémant and Fine de Bordeaux sparkling wines. Here, you can also find excellent wines at very affordable prices and festive activities all year round (open doors in the châteaux, Bordeaux Wine Festival, Médoc Marathon, etc.).

Bordeaux Wine Trip in Graves and Sauternes

The only Wine Trip in Gironde that brings together all three colours of Grand Crus, the Bordeaux Wine Route in Graves and Sauternes takes you to discover the appellations of Graves, Pessac-Léognan and Sauternes-Barsac, birthplace of the vine in Bordeaux.

Things to see on the

Bordeaux Wine Trip
in Graves and Sauternes

● Châteaux Clémentins de Budos, Fargues, Roquetaillade (restored by Viollet-le-Duc) and Villandraut. Château de Cazeneuve, former residence of King Henry IV and Queen Margot; Château de La Brède, home of Montesquieu.

● Maison Lillet,

in Podensac.

Established in 1872, Lillet is a subtle combination of fine wine and natural fruit and spiced liqueurs. This is the Gironde aperitif par excellence, praised by James Bond in « Casino Royale ».

● And to combine the benefits of vine and « luxury, peacefulness and delight », head to « les Sources de Caudalie », Vinothérapie® SPA, in Martillac, on the estate of Château Smith-Haut-Lafitte.

Six certified « Vignobles et Découvertes® » destinations welcome you to discover the world of Bordeaux wines, taste wine in the cellar where it was made and share the expertise of the winemakers of Gironde.

Wine-Growing Region of Gironde

- 114,000 hectares of vines
- 60 Appellations d'Origine Contrôlée (i.e. the largest AOC winegrowing region in France - Bordeaux makes up 26% of the AOC area)
- 6,600 winemakers
- 300 maisons de négoce (wine merchants) - 84 brokers - 36 cooperative wineries + 4 producer unions
- An average of 750,000,000 bottles made each year.

Bordeaux Wine Trip in Entre-deux-Mers

Between Garonne and Dordogne, Entre-deux-Mers offers the full range of Bordeaux wines: red wines, dry and sweet whites, dessert wines, rosés, claret wines... in an enchanting setting sprinkled with bastides, abbeys, Romanesque churches and fortified mills.

Things to see on the

Bordeaux Wine Trip in Entre-deux-Mers

- Abbeys of La Sauve-Majeure (UNESCO), Blasimon and Saint-Ferme; Domaine de Malagar (Saint-Maixant), home of the French writer François Mauriac; Château de Malomé (Saint-André-du-Bois), place of leisure for painter Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec; Bastides of Monségur, Sauveterre-de-Guyenne, Pellegrue, Blasimon, Créon, Cadillac; Castle of the Dukes of Épernon, in Cadillac.
- Charming villages of Rions, Sainte-Croix-du-Mont, Saint-Macaire, Castelmoron d'Albret, Verdelais, La Réole (City of Art and History).
- Planète Bordeaux - headquarters of the Regional Winemakers' Association of AOC Bordeaux and Bordeaux Supérieur - for an amazing, fun and sensory journey into the world of Bordeaux wines. Slideshow, sound and light in the cellars, guided smelling and tasting session... www.planete-bordeaux.fr

World wine capital, Bordeaux shines in its magnificent setting distinguished by UNESCO. Here, the city and wine have developed in perfect harmony. One must say that Bordeaux has been growing grapes and making wine for the past 2,000 years !

Overlooking the Gironde Estuary and its fortifications listed by UNESCO (« Verrou Vauban » or « Bolt of the Estuary »), these Wine Routes embrace three appellations : Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux, Côtes de Bourg, and Bordeaux & Bordeaux Supérieur.

Discover the Cité du Vin

Impressive glass tower located on the banks of the Garonne, the Cité du Vin seeks to celebrate the universal influence of the culture and civilization of wine. In June 2016, this unique place in the world will offer visitors a spectacular, fun and sensory journey into the world of wine from antiquity to the present day, through different spaces divided by a 3,000m² « nave ».

© Cité du Vin

In addition:

- a scenic viewpoint overlooking the Garonne, where visitors can enjoy a glass of wine while taking in the stunning view of Bordeaux
- a wine-tourism area presenting all the options to tour the vineyards of Bordeaux.
- a pontoon located at the entrance of the Cité du Vin to access the areas by boat and tour the vineyards of Bordeaux along the Garonne River. www.laciteduvin.com

Along the water

Atlantic Ocean, Arcachon Bay, Gironde Estuary, lakes:
Gironde is also a country of water !

249 mi of waterways

are open to boaters, especially on the Gironde Estuary, the Garonne River and its lateral canal, the Dordogne and the Isle. Many equipped pontoon boats allow boaters to travel freely along the water.

Several cruise lines offer rides for a few hours or an entire day departing from Arcachon, Bordeaux, Blaye, Bourg, Pauillac and Sainte-Foy-la-Grande.

On a barge,
boat-restaurant,
catamaran, « galupe » (flat-bottomed boat), sea kayak or paddle boat... you will certainly find your stride !

Things to do on the water

- Sail on the largest estuary in Western Europe to discover a unique heritage (« bateaux-libellules » or « dragonfly boats », « carrelets » or « fishermen's huts ») and explore the islands of Patiras and Nouvelle like the Swiss Family Robinson.

- In a canoe, paddle along the Leyre, which winds through the heart of the Landes de Gascogne Natural Regional Park, the Ciron which crosses Sauternes, Arcachon Bay to reach the Île aux Oiseaux (Bird's Island), or on the Dordogne, a biosphere reserve listed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO...

- Set sail on the great lakes of Hourtin-Carcans (the largest freshwater lake in France, 66km²), Lacanau and Cazaux. Perfect for those who want to take up sailing or stand up paddling.

- Take a breath of fresh air with the family in the natural areas of Gérard Lagors (Hostens) and Volny-Favory (Blasimon) and enjoy: swimming, sailing, mountain biking, hiking, horseback riding, canoeing and more.

- Discover Arcachon Bay by « pinasse » (typical local boat) before enjoying a dozen oysters in an oyster shack. And to end your day in style bay side, what better than a ride on a catamaran at sunset, facing the Dune of Pilat, with a glass of Bordeaux ?

Culture & heritage

Did you know ?

Gironde is, after Paris, the French department that has the largest number of Historic Monuments (997).

A fabulous area to discover!

Here, you will also find 4 National Monuments (Cave of Pair-Non-Pair, Pey-Berland Tower, Château de Cadillac and the Abbey of La Sauve-Majeure, listed as World Heritage by UNESCO), 2 cities of Art and History (Bordeaux, La Réole), 21 ancient villages including 8 bastides: Blasimon, Cadillac, Créon, Libourne, Monségur, Pellegrue, Sainte-Foy-la-Grande and Sauveterre-de-Guyenne.

Three major sites listed as World Heritage by l'UNESCO

Saint-Émilion got the ball rolling in 1999 by becoming the first wine-growing area in the world registered under « Cultural Landscapes ». Then Bordeaux and its port (known as « Port de la Lune ») are distinguished in 2007 as an « exceptional urban centre ». In 2008, it was the Citadel of Blaye's turn to be listed under the name « Verrou Vauban » or « Bolt of the Estuary » with Fort Pâté (on Île Pâté, in the heart of the Gironde Estuary) and Fort Médoc on the left bank of the Estuary.
